COVID-19: As a firm we are closely following the advice from the World Health Organisation and local governments. Most of our people around the world are now working from home and have access to our systems as if they were in the office, but with widespread travel restrictions it is no longer feasible to accept hard copy letters or service of legal proceedings at our offices. We do now however accept service of all documents by email as long as you send them to the email address of the Kennedys lawyer who is handling your matter, any attachment is less than 200Mb and you receive no out-of-office message or other system message signifying that the lawyer has not seen your email. During these challenging and difficult times Kennedys is committed to our people, our clients and all our families and friends.
